

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

For love or money?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's backgrounds in a wider variety of communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- Is it better to have a job that pays well, or a job that you love doing? Why?
- What is a job that you would love to do but that doesn't pay well or doesn't have many employment opportunities?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about feelings, reactions, and decision-making.
- I can show I understand someone's feelings or situation and express agreement.
- I can express possibility and necessity.

Let's Explore!

Sally finally reveals what she wants to study!

* You can use "reveal" to show a hidden object or to share a secret with someone.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Vanessa: They said it will be a twenty-minute wait for a table.

Sally: Okay. I don't mind waiting. I ate a big breakfast.

Vanessa: So, you haven't mentioned what you would like to study. Do you have any ideas?

Sally: I do. I might study floristry. Don't you think that would be a good choice for me?

Vanessa: Floristry? I'm not sure. Isn't it difficult to find work in floristry?

Sally: Yes, you're right. It could be really problematic to find a job, but it's what I really revel in doing.

Vanessa: Oh! I had no idea you were so interested in flowers!

Sally: And don't they say you should find work doing what you love?

Vanessa: Of course! But don't forget, you have to make enough money to pay your bills.

Sally: Well, I haven't come to a final decision yet. I must weigh my options carefully.

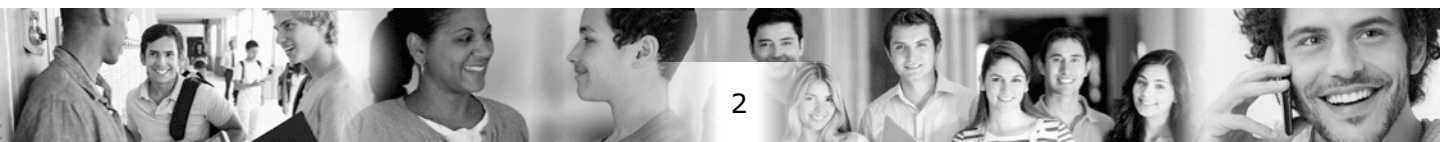

Vanessa: Absolutely. Don't make any hasty decisions that you may regret later.

Sally: I won't. I will give it a lot of thought before I decide. But at some point I will just have to take the plunge and go for it. Don't they say you never regret what you do, only what you don't do?

Vanessa: Yeah, for sure. But only after you've carefully considered all your options.

Sally: Oh, Vanessa. You're so prudent!

Vanessa: Let's go! Our table is ready.

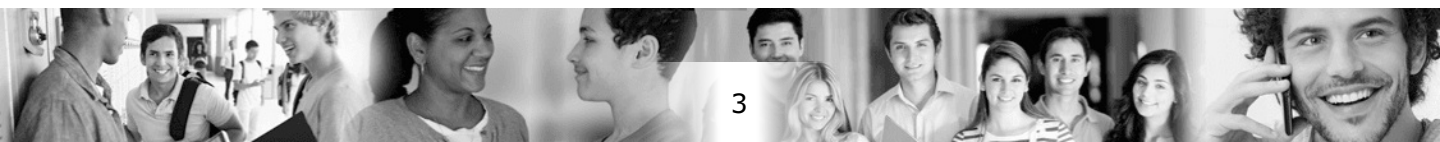

Let's Practice!

Sally and Vanessa talk about working in the floristry business.

Instructions: Circle the correct answer.

1. When Sally asks Vanessa "Don't you think that would be a good choice for me?", she means...
 - I don't think that floristry is a good option for me.
 - I will study floristry despite your opinion.
 - I believe that floristry is a good option for me.
2. When Vanessa asks Sally "Isn't it difficult to find work in floristry?" she means...
 - It can be difficult to find work in floristry.
 - It isn't difficult to find work in floristry.
 - It's better to work in floristry.
3. When Sally asks Vanessa "And don't they say you should find work doing what you love?" she means...
 - They don't say you should find work doing what you love.
 - They say you should find work doing what you love.
 - They should say you should find love doing what you love.
4. Sally's general opinion about floristry is...
 - I really love floristry.
 - I am a florist.
 - I won't find work in floristry.
5. Sally believes that...
 - You should get a job that pays a lot.
 - You should find a job you love.
 - Going to school will get me a job.

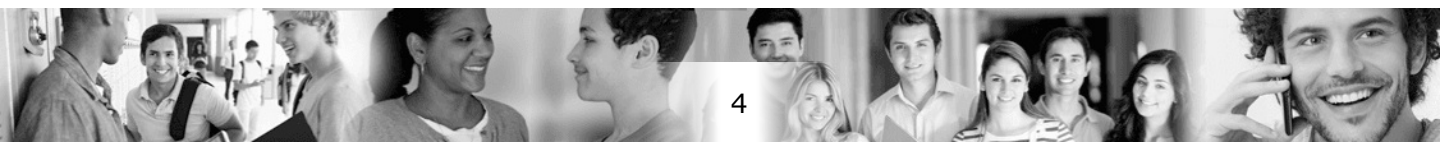

Let's Practice!

Sally and Vanessa talk about Sally's future.

Instructions: Read the sentences. Select the most appropriate modal verb and write it in the given space.

1. I've been thinking a lot about it lately and I _____ study floristry.
(have to / might / don't have to)
2. It _____ be problematic to find a job, but it's what I really revel in doing. (could / has to / should)
3. You _____ make enough money to pay your bills.
(have to / must not / might)
4. Don't make any hasty decisions that you _____ regret later.
(have to / may not / may)
5. I haven't come to a final decision yet. I _____ weigh my options carefully.
(must / might / don't have to)

Extension Activity

Watch a TED talk and write a summary.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- On the Internet, watch the TED Talk How To Make Hard Choices by Ruth Chang.
- Take detailed notes about her suggestions. Watch as many times as you need.
- Summarize your notes.
- Write a paragraph about what you heard in the talk.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I talk about feelings, reactions and decision-making.

☐ ☐

I express possibility and necessity.

☐ ☐

I listen to a recording and take detailed notes.

☐ ☐

I summarize information and write a paragraph.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- floristry (noun): the business of growing or selling flowers
e.g. I might study floristry as I'm very interested in flowers.
- problematic (adjective): difficult to solve or do e.g. It could be problematic to find a job, but it's what I really want.
- come to a decision (expression): to get to a point where you know what to do e.g. I haven't come to a final decision yet. I still have to think it over.
- to weigh one's options (expression): to think carefully about different options in order to come to a decision e.g. I haven't made a decision yet. I must weigh my options carefully.
- to revel in (verb): to feel intense pleasure or interest in something e.g. I know it can be hard to find a job, but it's what I really revel in doing.
- hasty (adjective): something that is done or made very quickly e.g. Don't make any hasty decisions that you may regret later.
- to take the plunge (expression): to commit to something e.g. But at some point I will just have to take the plunge and go for it.
- prudent (adjective): careful or wise in practical matters
e.g. Be prudent. Make your decision only once you've considered all your options.

Learning Points

Modals for Possibility and Necessity

You use modals when you want to express possibility and necessity.

You use may, might and could to express possibility in the past and in the future.

Might* suggests that something is less possible than may.

- might / might not + infinitive
- could / could not + infinitive
- may / may not + infinitive

Expressing Necessity

You use must or have to to express that something is necessarily true.

Example:

I must weigh my options.

Examples:

- I might study floristry.
- It could be problematic to find a job, but it's what I really revel in doing.
- You have to make enough money to pay your bills.
- I must weigh my options carefully.
- Don't make any hasty decisions that you may regret later.

Negative Questions To Encourage Agreement

Negative questions have a different meaning than regular questions.

You use negative questions to confirm information you already know, like Don't you think ... ?

Negative questions can have two different meanings.

You can ask a negative question for confirmation of a positive belief.
You can ask a negative question for confirmation of a negative belief.

Examples:

- Don't you think that would be a good choice for me?
- Isn't it difficult to find work in floristry?
- And don't they say you should find work doing what you love?

